BA PROGRAM IN AMERICAN STUDIES

BA program in American Studies provides you with a solid foundation of knowledge of the United States and the contemporary media in the broad geopolitical and socio-cultural context.

Our interdisciplinary program and interactive learning methods offer you a unique and inspiring study experience where you gain a deep understanding of America's:

- global reach and limitations of its economic, political, and cultural impact;
- complexity of its domestic historical developments and social transitions;
- networked and digital media communication and its corporate practices.

Designed to equip students with both critical thinking and practical skills, our American Studies Minor offers a comprehensive and concentrated study program of core courses grouped in 3 modules:

- 1 – History and Politics
- 2 – Culture and Society
- 3 – The Media

American Studies Minor program gives you a compelling opportunity to combine learning in, and mastering your, English along with the acquisition of Spanish.

American Studies Minor curriculum is taught in an engaging and challenging way in small groups by a team of expert faculty members who pursue a wide range of research interests and are experienced academic teachers.

BA American Studies program is geared towards developing both personally and professionally versatile and informed innovators capable of adapting to the dynamics of job markets.

Students acquire the necessary knowledge, skills, and inspiration to further pursue learning at the Master's level.
